5 Sept. 58 [redacted] called and gave me following wording to add to Info Sheet:

"The United States Intelligence Board (USIB) has replaced the Intelligence Advisory Committee (IAC) and is, in fact, a consolidation of the old IAC and the United States Communications Intelligence Board (USCIB).

"Wherever IAC or USCIB are mentioned in Agency regulations, it will henceforth be understood to mean USIB."

I asked him for effective date of this consolidation and he said he'd have to check on this and call me back.

9/5/58 [] called to request we not make this change at this at 5¹⁰ P.M. time since final approval of the consolidation not yet given:
will be a few weeks yet, even though actual consolidation of the staffs has been made and is now operating as USIB.
